THE BULLETIN:

BY EDWARD H. BRITTON.

SECOND EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Friday Morning, March 6, '63.

[TELEGRAPHED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Congressional.

RICHMOND, March 5.

The Impressment Bill was further discussed in the Senate to-day. The Amendment was adopted, providing for the appointment by the President of three Commissioners to each State who shall divide the State in one or more assessment districts, and proceed to fix the price or value to be paid to owners of articles impressed for the use of the army from time to time. The revision to be made at least once in every sixty days.

The House is in secret session on the Tax Bill.

From the West.

MOBILE, March 5.

The Jackson Mississippian says the destruction of the Indianola was a most unfortunate and unnecessary affair The turretted monster which proved to be a flat boat with sundry fixtures on board, passed Vicksburg on Tuesday night last. The officials believing she was a turretted monster blew up the Indianola, but her guns fell into the hands of the enemy.

The Queen of the West left in such a hurry as to forget her crew, who were left ashore.

Taking it altogether it was a good joke on the Partizan Ranger who are notoriously more cunning than brave.

VICKSBURG, March 5.

Commodore Porter, commanding the Yankee fleet, proclaims that if any persons firing on unarmed vessels on the River, and taken in the act, would be hung; also, all persons caught burning cotton, levying contributions, &c.

The answer of Gen. Stevenson has not yet transpired.

Northern News.

RICHMOND, March 5.

The New York Herald, of the 3d inst., says that the Confederate steamer Florida captured and burnt the ship Jacob Bell, from China for New York, with sixteen hundred tons of merchandize. The cargo was valued at one million eight hundred thousand dollars.

SECOND DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, March 5.

The Enquirer has the Washington Chronicle of the 3d.

The government is a heavy loser by the distruction of the Jacob Bell, as her duties would have amounted to one hundred and seventy-five thousand.

Judge Bernard, of New York, has instructed the Grand Jury to find bill against parties implicated in arbitrary arrests.

Commodore Porter's dispatch to the Secretary of the Navy says, I regret to inform you that the Indianola has also fallen into the hands of the enemy. The Webb and the Queen of the West attacked and rammed her until she surrendered, all of which I can trace to non-compliance with my instructions.

The London Times says it is clear that the blockade at Charleston was not raised at the time of the attack on the Federal fleet, and that there was not even an intermission of it.

The Post takes a similar view.

The Liverpooll Post announces the arrival of the Sumter in the Mercy.

From Savannah.

The Savannah News, of the 4th inst. gives the following:

THE FIRING LAST NIGHT—PROBABLE RESUMPTION OF THE FIGHT TO-DAY.—Occasional heavy guns were heard last night in the direction of Genesis Point, from which we infer that the mortar boats lying below were engaged in throwing shells at our batteries for the purpose of preventing our men from repairing the damage sustained by the works during the day, or from obtaining rest.

The iron-clads, which are the only vessels that dare to venture within reach of our guns, retired yesterday from the contest either for want of ammunition or on account of the exhaustion of their crews. They will no doubt resume the fight to-day, when the fourth iron-clad which remained with the fleet yesterday, will be brought up.

THE YANKEE IRON-CLADS.—We observed yesterday that most of the shots fired from our batteries struck the turret of the iron-clad at which they were aimed, but the fact that she was not disabled is evidence that our heaviest missiles had but little effect upon her iron mailed turret. At long taw, or in an open sea-road, where it would be difficult to come to close quarters with these iron monsters, they are certainly very formidable affairs, but in a land locked channel, with the shores on either side in our possesion, it seems that means might be resorted to which would render them unsafe. The fresh water navy and boron-marines of the West have a way of capturing Yankee gunboats.

ARRIVALS FROM HAVANA.—The schooners Sea Drift and Joe Flanner, arrived Monday night at Mobile, from Havana, with valuable assorted cargos.

A Voice from New England.

From the Charleston Courier.]

We are permitted to place before the readers of the Courier the following letter lately received in this city from a native and resident daughter of New England.—For obvious reasons we do not indicate the name or the place of residence with any more precision:

February 1, 1863.

Your letter came to us three days since. I need not say with how much interest we pursued it. My whole sympathy is with the South, and has been from the very commencement of this most unholy strife.

The right of secession is to my mind, so unquestionable, that no argument on the opposite side has ever had the slightest influence upon me. Each State earned its sovereignty and entire independence in our first revolution. The Union was planned and brought into being for the happiness of all.

You of the South believe that the experiment has failed, as far as the security of yourselves and children is concerned; so believing, you have dissolved the copartnership. You did not wish war. I have full faith that you never would have made one single aggression upon us. The mouth of the Mississippi (the only real cause of fear for the North) was declared, by your public documents, to be forever free to all nations. With your solemn convictions you have done nothing but your duty, and I believe you will succeed, and I heartily pray you may.

And it is not because I am recreant to my own people, that I so wish. It is because I love my whole country. Success to the North, in this ungodly strife, I am sure, would bring to it eventually, some awful retribution. "God is not mocked," and "what we sow, that shall we also reap." The perpetual anguish of our souls during the first year of this wicked war was more than I can describe, and, I think, more than you would realize that we would feel so far from the immediate scenes of war. "Ten years of common life would not have aged——and myself as these have done.

Now, feeling that you are sustaining yourselves, having full confidence in your determination still so to do—seeing symptoms everywhere of a strong re-action against the war—beholding the judgment swiftly coming upon the North, if not yet, in material prosperity, still in the bleeding hearts and desolated hearths of many a household close beside us, we await the issue with a solemn patience.

All national crimes contain within themselves the seeds of retribution. This dastardly proclamation of the weak and wicked imbecile whom (I feel with prophetic power) the wrath of the Lord will fall and grind him to attoms this proclamation I believe will so entirely unite you that you will be invincible

Are we so reduced at the North, that, because our armies have not annihilated yours, that we must call upon your negroes to massacre your helpless women and children?

My God! why didst thou call me to live in such an hour

But my dear——, this very sin will break up our army. The men will not fight for this purpose. Thousands of heroic souls, the flower of our young men, have fought, have suffered and have died in the firm, though mistaken conviction that they might thus restore the Union. For the Constitution, for the Stars and Stripes, still would the survivors fight—not for Abolitionism—not for survile insurrection—not for the murder and outrage of American women. No! on this rock will this wicked Administration split.

In May these two years and nine months men come home, then we shall see.

If Charleston must fall, which may God forbid, I only trust the inhabitants may set fire to it themselves, and consume it. Better so than to have a fiend like Butler placed there. One day it will arise like the Phœnix, from its ashes, if yielded now a voluntary sacrifice to Patriotism and to Liberty.

In these terrible days the cares and trials of individual life seems almost unworthy of mention. We have had many dear C——, * * * * * * * * * *

We have expressed our honest convictions at all times and places. We have faithfully borne our testimony, and I think it has not been altogether without some fruit.

LETTERS BY FLAG OF TRUCE.—By orders issued by Gen. Winder, commanding the Richmond City Department, all letters intended to be sent to the United States by flag of truce, must be mailed at his office, where they are subjected to examination, and it deemed unobjectionable are forwarded.

All letters must have on them either a three cent piece, or United States postage stamp, and they must not exceed a page in length, or contain any allusions to political or military matters. It is proper to state that the postage stamps must be of the latest die adopted by the Lincoln Government. Those in use when the war commenced are no longer valid.

CHARLOTTE, Nov'r. 1, 1862.

The Battle of Goldsboro—Gen. Robertson's Report.

HEADQUARTERS, Goldsboro, Dec 19, 1862.

Capt [illegible] Evans, A. A. G., Head'rs, Evans' Brigade in the Field.

CAPTAIN: I have the honor to report that in accordance with your order, I left Mosely Hall, on the Goldsboro and Kinston Railroad, at 11½ o'clock, a. m., on the 15th inst, and with Levethorpe's portion of Ferebee's and Evans' regiments, and a section of Artillery, (from Moor's Battallion) commanded by Lieut. McCleese, proceeded to White Hall, on Neuse river, to burn the bridge at that point, and dispute the enemy's crossing, should he attempt to turn our right.

Having no cavalry, I impressed a citizen guide and pushed forward to reconnoitre in advance of my command. Upon reaching White Hall, I learned that the enemy had not made his appearance there, I then ordered my guide to scout towards Kinston to prevent surprise. One hour later, my force arrived and I made rapid preparations for burning the bridge.

Making a personal examination some miles to the front without finding the enemy, I returned to White Hall. Shortly afterwards, citizens with jaded horses, and much excited, announced that the enemy was advancing. I ordered Major Jackson and Lieut. Worthington to watch his movements, but they could not find him. I awaited his approach until nearly dark and determined to recross and burn the bridge according to my orders. The torch had scarcely been applied ere the enemy's cavalry appeared. With artillery they shelled the woods until late at night, destroying the gunboat in process of construction on this side Several men taking off their clothes, attempted to cross the river by swimming, but were driven back by our sharpshooters. From the force displayed it was evidently his attention to cross the White Hall bridge.

About 9 o'clock a. m. on the 16th, brisk picket skirmishing commenced, I visited the bridge, and after giving the necessary instructions, went back to order up the 31st N. C. regiment (Col. Jordan,) which had arrived during the night, and which I placed in position as much sheltered as circumstances would permit. I then posted the artillery as well as the nature of the ground would admit, and ordered both shell and solid shot to be fired. For some time previous the enemy had been firing from twelve to eighteen pieces, some of immense calibre. Owing to a range of hills on the White Hall side, the enemy had the advantage of position. The front occupied by his troops being narrow, not more than one regiment at a time could advantageously engage him. I therefore held Leventhorpe's, Ferebee's and Evans' in reserve, leaving the 31st and two picket companies of Leventhorpe's regiment in front. The cannonading from the enemy's batteries became so terrific that the 31st withdrew from their position without instructions, but in good order, I immediately ordered Col. Leventhrope forward. The alacrity with which the order was obeyed by his men, gave ample proof of their gallant bearing, which they so nobly sustained during the entire fight, which raged with intensity for several hours after they became engaged No veteran soldiers ever fought better or inflicted more terrrible loss upon an enemy, considering the numbers engaged. It was with difficulty they could be withdrawn from the field. Three times did they drive the Yankee cannoniers from their guns, and as often prevent their infantry regiments from forming line in their front. In spite of the four hostile regiments whose standards wavered on the opposite bank. did these brave men continue to hold their ground, and finally drove the enemy in confusion from the field. More than one hundred of their dead and wounded were left on the river bank. The conduct of this regiment reflects the greatest credit upon its accomplished and dauntless commander.

Col. Ferebee, of the 59th regiment displayed the most signal coolness and courage for several hours with eighteen men of the picket guard belonging to the 11th regiment. He fought the enemy at close quarters, notwithstanding his own command was not in action.

The 59th and 63d regiments, although in reserve, were, nevertheless, exposed to a galling fire from the enemy's artillery. A few were killed and quite a number wounded. Both officers and men behaved admirably. The section of artillery was remarkably well served under heavy fire Lieut. McCleese and his men remained cool and collected. My thanks are especially due to Maj. George Jackson, Capt. Chas. H. Gordon and Lieut. Worthington, members of my staff, for efficient services and prompt delivery of orders under the heaviest fire.

The soldierly qualities displayed by Col. Leaventhorpe on the march and during the action, to which I can bear witness strongly recommend him to the favorable consideration of the authorities.

About seventy stand of arms and a quantity of clothing were collected from the battle field.

I regret having to record the death of Lt. Means, of Co. E, 11th Reg't N C T., and also that of 1st Serg't Bristol, of Co. B, of same Regt. They both fell like brave men in the faithful performance of their duty. The loss of the enemy, though not accurately ascertained, is known to be heavy.

I herewith enclose a list of killed and wounded on our side.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,

B. H. ROBERTSON,
Brig. Gen. Commanding.

P. S.—Gen. Robertson ascertained after writing the above report, that the enemy, at the battle of White Hall, consisted of five brigades, and opened on "the Bethel" with 29 guns.

Yankee Barbarity.

A letter was received in Lynchburg Monday, says the Virginian, from a responsible lady in Fauquier, stating that a hospital in Georgetown, containing 500 negroes afflicted with small Pox, was burned up a day or two since. This shocking affair, attributed by the Yankees to accident, is not credited. But is believed to have been the result of a cold blooded purpose to exterminate the negroes and the disease by the summary but execrable design of burning the building in which they were suffering. If this report be true, and from the respectable source from which it comes to us, we have no reason to doubt it, is probably the blackest deed in the long and black catalogue of crimes of which the Yankees have been guilty.

A Man-Woman Sent to the State Prison.

Judge Lyons' Court at Richmond, was occupied Tuesday in the trial of a young man named Thomas Linton, who was charged with feloniously appropriating to his own use $200 belonging to Mrs. Eli zabeth Anaker. The Dispatch gives the following particulars.

The evidence was of such a character as to induce the belief that the defendant was under the influence of intoxicating liquor when he committed the offence for which he was arranged. The jury, after hearing the testimony, brought in a verdict of guilty, and assessed his term of confinement at two years. Linton's fall may be traced directly to the inordinate use of ardent sprits. He enjoyed some local notoriety as a person of erratic mind and was of so feminine an appearance as to have been arrested several times in this and other cities as a woman disguised in men's clothing.

A Scene at St. Louis.

The following paragraph is taken from a late number of the New York Times:

The boat from St. Louis just in, brings intelligence of the arrival there yesterday of the rebel prisoners from Arkansas Post. An intelligent passenger informs me that there was a very numerous gathering upon the levee to witness, and, as it proved, on the part of hundreds of open sympathizers, to welcome their arrival, and to make the occasion a kind of ovasion to treason.—Finding so many friends on the dock, and so many manifestations of sympathy, the rebel prisoners gave vent to shouts and savage outcries of defiance, which were responded to from the landing. One of the privates, more impudent and tonguey than the rest, volunteered to be spokesman for the crowd, and, mounting a temporary rostrum, harangued the assemblage for an hour in the most exciting and treasonable style. He applied to the Yankees every term of abuse and contempt which his peculiar vocabulary could furnish, without the slightest interruption from the officers in charge. Barrels of apples were brought down to the dock, their heads knocked in, and their contents showered among the prisoners. And this is the way we receive in a Union city red handed rebels, from the battle field where the blood of brave men has flowed in the defence of the Government.

North Carolina Troops.

Captain Alexander McRae, of Wilmington, (better known as Gen. McRae,) has been for nearly a year in command of one of the artillery companies raised under an ordinance of the Convention, for the defence of Wilmington. He has three sons who have been made field officers in North Carolina Regiments; William McRae, Lt. Colonel of the 15th Regiment, Robert B. McRae, Major of the 7th Regiment, and Henry McRae, Major of the 8th Regiment.

We learn that Col. Solomon Williams, of the 19th Regiment, N. C. T., (2d Cavalry,) has been ordered to the command of the 12th; the Colonelcy of which has been vacated by the resignation of Col. Benj. O. Wade, of Warren.

Col. Henry A. Dowd, of the 15th Regiment North Carolina Troops, who was severely wounded in the battles around Richmond, has resigned. Thus a brave and gallant officer is lost to the service.

Thomas Ruffin, of Alamance, (late a Judge of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity,) Lieut. Colonel of the 13th Regiment N. C. T., has resigned.

Lieut. Colonel Hector McKethan, of Fayetteville, has been promoted to Colonel of the 51st Regiment N. C. T.—Raleigh Progress.

The Baltimore American of the 20th, says: "The pirate Florida, Capt. Maffit, has captured and destroyed seven Yankee vessels off the West Indies."

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

HEADQUARTERS M. R.,
CAMP ROBERTSON NEAR SNOW HILL,
March 3d, 1863.

Mr. Editor: The day is dark and gloomy, the camp is dull and spiritless, the men are longing for a more active life—something to drive away dull care. In this, it is to be hoped, that they will soon be satisfied, as Gen. D. H. Hill is in command of the Department of Eastern North Carolina. He is a man that likes to see things moving, sufficiently to keep the enemy in check. From all accounts we will soon be permitted to return to our "paradise." The enemy captured twelve of the company that relieved us on Taw River, and the inhabitants are very anxious for our return.

The 63d, the invincible 63d, at the poor house of Green county; who would have thought it? A regiment which had luxuriated on the best the country afforded should be sent to the poor house! But it is not the wish of the regiment to occupy any such position. It may speak badly for the authorities, but the "old 63d" is the same wherever placed.

The eloquent, logical, theological and metaphysical correspondence from Kinston has been read with much pleasure. How such a genius, such a volume of wit, humor and talent should be locked up in a "Post Office." But if it be remembered that "many a gem is born to blush unseen," the matter can be easily reconciled. But how fortunate it was that an opportunity offered itself, to let this bright spark of genius shine forth with its diamond like lustre. What a loss to the country would there have been, had not this Webster, this Calhoun, made known his existence, and that he resided at Kinston, and had been shut up in the Post Office for lo these many years. That it had been his habit to sell the papers of soldiers immediately on the arrival of the mail for the postage due! That if the owner is not there it is not his fault; but he will make it his gain, for he will sell six copies of a daily paper for a month or more, and account to the Postmaster General for only that which is due. He should be appointed Postmaster Generalisimo, for these good traits of character.

Your subscribers are not the only ones that have shared this fate—others have a right to complain, but have said nothing.

But I have said enough of this Post-office genius and will now pass him up the line with a recommendation for promotion.

HAL.

Be Just to the Poor.

We have made several appeals in behalf of the poor women who are sewing for the State, and we inferred from a paragraph in the Standard a few days ago, the pay would certainly be advanced, but we were assured yesterday by persons doing work for the State that the prices had not been increased. One instance we will mention: A poor woman with five small children, who has lost her husband in the war, living fifteen miles from the city, has been engaged for some time in making clothes for the soldiers. She applied yesterday for garments and received forty pair of drawers which she is to take home, make up and return for fifteen cents a pair. Now it is evident to any fair minded person that this is not enough—in fact it is no more than was paid for the same work in peace times, when meal was sixty cents a bushel and bacon ten cents a pound. These women must have more or starve, and we again appeal to those having authority in the premises to do an act of simple justice and advance the prices paid these poor creatures who are at least entitled to a fair compensation for their labor.

We believe that all the officers of the State, including those connected with the clothing department get good salaries, and at this we do not complain. Even in some instances salaries have been raised, which was very proper, but then the poor women many of them mourning for husbands, fathers or brothers that have fallen in the defence of the country, seem to have but few friends. A howl was raised in the Legislature not only to pay salaries to judges that hold no courts but to increase the amount heretofore paid, and this too when most or all of the gentlemen occupying seats upon the bench were able to live without it, but the thousands of poor women working for the State seem to be of little consequence in the eyes of the makers and administrators of the law. Let it not be said that prices in every department of business have been raised, and that the compensation of every laborer has been advanced in consequence of the high prices demanded for provisions except in the State Clothing Department. We do not know who is to blame for this neglect but it is certain that some one will be held responsible hereafter.—Raleigh Progress.

Yankees at Newbern.

Captain C. C. Edelin, formerly of Washington city, and commanding a battalion of infantry in the army near Newbern, N. C., arrived in Richmond a day or two since. He, with his command, have for some months past been continually upon the outposts. He says that there are ten thousand of the enemy in Newbern, among them two negro regiments, who are the terror of the place, and are daily drilled upon the fair grounds.

A short time since he, with his battalion, accompanied by a portion of Colonel Ferraby's North Carolina Regiment, made a successful reconnoissance within the enemy's lines. Among other captures was a wagon loaded with female wearing apparent, taken from the residents of Newbern.

Captain Edelin was reported as having been killed at Onslow, N. C., in that engagement, which took place there on the 13th of February, but although his horse was shot from under him, he escapted injury.—Richmond Whig.

The steamer T. D. Wagner, Capt. W. C. Hammer, which arrived at Charleston a few days ago from Liverpool, via Nassau, brought over from England cotton cardings sufficient for all the cotton manufactories in North and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee to resume their spining and the manufacture of fabrics.

To the Teachers of the South.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA,
January, 12th, 1863.

At the last annual meeting of the State Educational Association of North Carolina held in the town of Lincolnton on the 14th and 15th of October last the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Association recommend a general Convention of the teachers of the Confederate States, to be held at ——— on ——— 1863, to take into consideration the best means for supplying the necessary text books for schools and colleges, and for uniting their efforts for the advancement of the cause of education in the Confederacy; and that the Executive Committee of the Association be directed to correspond with teachers in the various States, on the subject.

We have thought it would facilitate the accomplishment of the object of the above resolution, to suggest a time and place for the holding of the Convention referred to; and we accordingly recommend that the meeting take place in Columbia, South Carolina, on Tuesday, April 28th, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

The importance of this movement will be readily appreciated by every friend of our beloved country; and we feel sure that no class of persons can be more useful in achieving, under God, the independence of a nation, than those who are engaged in training the hearts and minds of the young.

The integrity of society itself demands that at least those of our text books which relate to moral and political science should not be prepared by persons who hold opinions in conflict with those on which our institutions are based; and if our schools are ever to be purged of the semi-infidel literature of the world, we will never have a better opportunity than the present for the commencement of this good work

We would add, in addition, that our national enemies arraign us at the bar of the civilized world, as a people of inferior moral development and capability; and every consideration which can appeal to our pride, to our patriotism and to our manhood, as well as to our sense of duty to God and to our fellow men, should prompt those who labor in the moral domain, to be up and doing.

We cannot afford to permit any exigency which our vindictive foes can bring upon us, to arrest our efforts in behalf of those agencies which, next to religion, do most to promote the welfare of society; and we know that if the rising generation is properly instructed the lapse of time will, by the blessing of Providence, but insure that independence for which those, who are now on the stage of action, are so heroically contending.

Believing that these views meet with your hearty concurrence, we respectfully and earnestly invite you to meet us in council at the time and place specified above, fully believing that, by the Divine favor, we may thus be enabled to lay, in this day of trial the foundation of a work which will redound to the honor and prosperity of our noble country.

With much respect,

We are truly yours,

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE Mercury gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letter and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

Terms—Payable in Advance.

DAILY, per annum.....$10.00
TRI-WEEKLY.....5.00

Clubs will be Furnished as follows:

Five Copies of the DAILY for.....$40.00
Five Copies of the TRI-WEEKLY.....20.00

The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books, unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. No will letters from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices, or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash, or an acceptable City reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters.

Postmasters are authorized to act as our Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money; and by sending us Five DAILY subscribers, with $30 enclosed—or Five TRI-WEEKLY subscribers, with $20 enclosed, will be entitled to an extra copy; or if preferred, they may retain Twenty per cent. of the pre-payments, for their trouble and in lieu of the extra paper.

Out of South Carolina, no person whatever is authorized to collect debts already due to the MERCURY.

In the State Mr. SAMUEL E. BURGESS is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new business and subscriptions.

In Charleston, Mr. JAMES D. BURNS, connected with the office, is our regular authorized collector who has full power to receipt for money now due the paper and to contract for future business.

Subscribers and others, in debt to us, are urgently requested to send in our dues by mail at the earliest period. By so doing, they will save us twenty per cent, an amount equivalent to a principal portion of the profits.

Editors in the State and throughout the South, who receive our TRI-WEEKLY for their WEEKLY, are respectfully requested to compensate us for the difference in value by inserting this Prospectus.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional commentations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new types, on a new press, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to by its regular authorship, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the STATE JOURNAL will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum.....$4.00
Weekly.....2.00

Those terms will be invariably adhered to in all cases. No name will be put upon the list of subscribers, and no paper sent, unless the money is paid in advance, and no paper will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscriber has previously signified his desire that his name may be stricken off. Names remain on the books, and papers are sent until all arrears are paid, and the publication is discontinued by the publisher.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.....$1.00
One square, each subsequent insertion.....0.50
